Cathedral Dedication

All parishes in the Diocese are urged to send representatives to a special service celebrating our first Cathedral, on the feast of the Baptism of Our Lord, Sunday, January 12, 3:30 p.m., at the Church of the Saviour, 38th & Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia.

The service will include the Installation of the Very Rev. John F. Hardwick as Dean of the Cathedral and the Seating of the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. Allen L. Bartlett, Jr. A reception will follow in the Undercroft.

Clergy Anniversaries

Congratulations to clergy who recently were honored by their parishes on their ordination anniversaries: the Rev. William Brown, III, Assistant at St. James' the Less (50 years); the Rev. Lloyd H. Winter, Jr., Rector, St. James', Langhorne (25 years); and the Rev. Winston Welty, Rector, St. Alban's, Newtown Square (25 years).

Absalom Jones Celebration

set for February 15

A diocesan celebration of Absalom Jones Day (observed February 13) will be held on Saturday, February 15, beginning with a 10:30 a.m. service at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, 38th & Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia. Bishops Bartlett and Turner will be con-celebrants, with the Rev. Jesse Anderson, Jr., Rector of Historic St. Thomas', the church founded by Absalom Jones in 1792, preaching. Choirs from a number of diocesan congregations will offer special music.

Following the service, the Philadelphia Chapter of the Union of Black Episcopalians is holding their annual Absalom Jones Lecture/Luncheon at the A.M.E. First District Plaza, at 3801 Market Street. Doors will open at 11:30 a.m., with the luncheon set for 12 noon.

Tickets cost $30 a person and may be ordered through parish deaneries. Contact your Rector/Vicar or your Dean.

VISN on Comcast

Subscribers to Comcast Cablevision of Philadelphia now get the Vision Interfaith Satellite Network (VISN) as part of their basic service. VISN presents faith and values programming produced by 54 Protestant, Roman Catholic, Jewish and Eastern Orthodox faith groups (including the Episcopal Church). Drama, comedy, children's shows, music, documentaries, and discussion programs are included in VISN's schedule. Local religious communicators continue to work to bring VISN to other cable companies in our area: call Barbara Ogilby at Church House for more information.

In Sympathy

The diocesan family extends sympathy to the Rev. Melford ("Bud") Holland, Rector of St. James', Perkiomen, on the death of his mother, and to the Rev. Robert Keel, Rector of Trinity, Buckingham, whose father died recently.

PTI: Get to Know Us!

Ready for an evening of relaxed and stimulating conversation and a chance to get to know the ministry of the Philadelphia Theological Institute better? Harvard University psychologist Robert Cole's provocative and insightful book, "The Spirituality of Children," will be the focus of a conversation anchored by Helen White, director of the Christian Education Resource Center, on January 27, 7:30 p.m., at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill.

PTI book groups are usually open only to Associates. This one will be open to all, with refreshments being served. The PTI office has paperback copies of the book. To have the book sent out immediately, and/or to let us know you are coming, please call 386-4108.

The Rev. Elizabeth Eisenstadt
PTI Director

Prominent theologians to speak here

Two leading liberal theologians will address a public forum here to mark the 50th anniversary of the founding of Christianity & Crisis, a bi-weekly journal of theological and ethical opinion founded by theologian Reinhold Niebuhr.

The Rev. Dr. Carter Heyward, prominent Christian feminist and Professor of Theology at Episcopal Divinity School, Cambridge, Massachusetts, and the Rev. Dr. Larry Rasmussen, Professor of Social Ethics at Union Theological Seminary, New York, will speak at 10 a.m. on Friday, February 28, at the Bala Cynwyd United Methodist Church, 314 Levering Mill Road, Bala Cynwyd.

Leon Howell, editor of the publication since 1985, will also speak. A 12-minute video interview with Dr. John C. Bennett, Christian ethicist and former President of Union who was for many years co-chair of the editorial board, will be shown.

The forum is open to the public without charge. Off-street parking is available. Contact the Rev. Arthur Brandenburg (664-3062) or Nancy Nolde (563-7854) for more information.

UBE Conference

The Union of Black Episcopalians Young Adult Caucus of New York will host its second regional conference February 14-16 at Trinity Church, New York City. Theme is "Empowering Young Adults for the Church of Today & Tomorrow." The conference is open to young adults (18-40) of African heritage. For information on registration fees and schedules contact Debra Bennett at 212/754-0822 (work) or 718/658-8290 (home).

Eastern Baptist Seminary offers a variety of one and four-week courses in its January term: art and the Church, church renewal, preaching, Old Testament history, New Testament Greek, Biblical Hebrew, and clinical pastoral care are among the offerings. Call 896-5000 for a brochure.

St. John's, Norristown, offering grants

St. John's, Norristown, will begin receiving applications for George C. Niblo Mission Fund Grants on January 1, 1992. Established in 1989, the grant program provides grants to agencies, organizations or institutions that minister to human need. Each year, one grant is made to an Episcopal organization and one made to a group of any other affiliation.

In 1991, grants of $2,000 each were made to the Victim Services Center of Montgomery County and to Camp Get-A-Long, a summer program for children sponsored by St. John the Evangelist, Philadelphia.

Applications will be received from January 1, 1992, through March 31, 1992, with grants to be awarded prior to June 30, 1992. For more information, call 272-4092.

School of Evangelism

The second Deanery School of Evangelism is being planned for Montgomery Deanery. Parishes in that Deanery are invited to send representatives to a meeting at St. Philip's, Oreland, on January 7, 7:30 p.m., when the goals and content of the School will be discussed. Contact the Rev. James E. Byrum, Chair of the Renewal, Evangelization and Church Growth Committee (643-0522) or Ginger Goodrich, Staff Officer for Evangelism (627-6434).

Prayer in Epiphany for the Decade of Evangelism

O God, Giver of life and source of all wisdom, grant us your power and might; shine in us Your bright Light; penetrate our hearts; and clean out all our doubts and emptiness. Enable us in this Decade of Evangelism, to reach the unreached, to support the underprivileged, to shine as Your Light in the darkness and to encourage one another. Make each of us feel concern and challenge; send us out in Your power to do Your will. We ask this in the Name of Your Son, Our Saviour, Jesus Christ the Lord.

Amen

Remembering Absalom

In February, Black History Month, we remember Absalom Jones, the first black priest in the Episcopal Church, whose feast day is February 13. Jones founded Historic St. Thomas', West Philadelphia, the first black Episcopal church. The Bicentennial Celebration of the Black Presence in the Episcopal Church is taking place this year, with special events happening at St. Thomas' and Church of the Advocate in November: see the February Pennsylvania Episcopalian, and watch upcoming issues of this newsletter, for more information.

Diocesan Service February 15

A diocesan observance of Absalom Jones Day will take place on February 15, 10:30 a.m., at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia. Bishops Bartlett and Turner will officiate at the Eucharist, and the Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, Jr., Rector of Historic St. Thomas', will preach. A luncheon sponsored by the local chapter of the Union of Black Episcopalians will follow at noon at the A.M.E. First District Plaza, 38th & Market Sts., with the Rev. William B. Moore, pastor of Tenth Memorial Baptist Church, speaker. Lunch tickets are $30, and may be obtained through Bishop Turner's office (627-6434).

All clergy are urged to attend this service. Clergy who plan to join the procession should vest (in alb and festive stole) in the Undercroft and should call the Cathedral (386-0234) to let them know they will be processing. The Deans are asked to attend, vest, and assist with the Holy Communion. If you are a Dean and cannot attend, please call the Very Rev. Thomas L. McClellan (482-6300).

Special Absalom Jones Service at St. Luke's, Newtown

St. Luke's, Newtown, will hold a service honoring Absalom Jones on Wednesday, February 4, at 7:30 p.m., with Bishop Turner and the Rev. Jesse F. Anderson, Jr., as special guests. Call 968-2781 for info/directions.

Bicentennial Communicators Available

Communicators for the Bicentennial Celebration of the Black Presence in the Episcopal Church visited Christ Church, Ithan, and Wissahickon Deanery, meeting at St. Matthias', in January. Karey Smith, of Calvary, Northern Liberties, and Leon Briscoe, St. Simon the Cyrenian, co-chair this group, who are hoping to bring an update on Bicentennial events to every parish and deanery in the Diocese. Call Smith, 877-3375, or Historic St. Thomas', 473-3065, for info.

Black Ministries Consultation

A Consultation on Black Ministries is planned for Saturday, April 4, 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. (tentative) at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour. The gathering will review present activities in our black congregations and consider how these can be strengthened and/or expanded. For info, contact Bishop Turner (627-6434).

Diocesan Council Update

Diocesan Council held an overnight meeting at the Holiday Inn in Lionville January 17-18. Much of the agenda was concerned with getting to know one another and beginning a process of envisioning future directions for the Diocese.

Members passed these resolutions:

Authorizing the Executive Committee of Council to make cuts in the 1992 diocesan budget should these be requested by the Finance & Property Committee before the March Council meeting;

Endorsing a resolution passed by the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church last November which "deplores reprisals taken against workers who exercise their rights to initiate collective bargaining as protected by federal and state statutes; [and] calls upon corporate and business leaders to respect the letter and the spirit of the National Labor Relations Act";

Urging active diocesan participation in the Billy Graham Crusade planned for Veterans Stadium, Philadelphia, June 24-28.

Need a Facelift?

No, not you — your parish newsletter! Do you need some suggestions to make it more attractive and “user-friendly”? Come to a satellite teleconference on church newsletters Tuesday, March 3, 2-3:30 p.m., at the United Methodist Church office in Valley Forge (the Methodists are co-sponsoring this nationwide conference with the Religious Public Relations Council.) Cost is $25/person (includes resource materials and snacks) or $15 if more than one person from your church attends. Deadline for registration: February 15. For registration info and directions, call Barbara Ogilby at Church House, 627-6434.

Music in CENTER CITY

St. Mark's, 16th & Locust Sts., is holding organ concerts at 12:10 p.m. on Tuesdays in January, February, May and June. Guest performers from the area will be featured. A free will offering each week benefits local outreach programs.

St. Stephen's, 10th & Market Sts., continues its “Music from Market East” series with three concerts: February 16, 3 p.m., pianist Rollin Wilber plays masterpieces by Shostakovich, Ravel, Debussy, Albeniz and Brahms; March 1, 3 p.m., soprano Mary Mitchell sings selections from Mozart, Handel and other composers; and March 15, 3 p.m., “Kreisleriana,” a tribute to the work of Fritz Kreisler, with David Reichman, violinist, and Rollin Wilber, pianist. Each concert is $10 or $8 for seniors/student ID. Call 922-3807 for info.

Dean of St. George's College, Jerusalem, to speak at Redeemer, Bryn Mawr

The Very Rev. John L. Peterson, Dean of St. George's College, Jerusalem, will speak on “The Peace of Jerusalem” on Tuesday evening, February 25, at 8 p.m. in the parish hall of the Church of the Redeemer, Pennswood and New Gulph Rds., Bryn Mawr. There is no admission fee, and light refreshments will be served.

Dolphins Name Administrator

Janice M. Sapp, who has a degree from Wesley Theological Seminary at American University in Washington and is enrolled in the M.S.W. program of the University of Pennsylvania, has been named Administrator of the Dolphins of Delaware Valley.

Sapp will have general oversight of the program, and is charged with seeking to expand the number of affiliated Dolphin programs around the country (there are now about 30, some of which have as many as 25 or 30 Dolphins each.) She will also be responsible for the recruiting and training of Dolphins in our five-county area. There are presently some 50 of these volunteer nursing-home visitors, coordinated from the Dolphin office by Gayle Jacobson. Sapp also will advise the Board in matters of public relations and fundraising.

Local Congregations form New Organization

On February 25, 1992, from 7:30 - 8:45 p.m. at the First District Plaza, 38th and Market Streets, a new kind of organization will be launched in Philadelphia by more than one thousand leaders from congregations and associations. The gathering has been organized by the Philadelphia Congregations Sponsoring Committee, affiliated with the Industrial Areas Foundation.

The mission of the organization is to create a powerful new vehicle in the city capable of negotiating with the governmental and private sectors on strategies and programs that benefit the residents of the city and region. The new organization is primarily a power organization, rooted in local congregations, and committed to the training and development of a new generation of non-partisan leaders in the city and region.

The Diocese of Pennsylvania has been supporting and participating in many different ways. The members of the Diocese are invited to come to share in the genesis of this new venture.

For further information, call Deborah Wagner at Episcopal Community Services, 351-1491.

MITYANA EVENING

Find out what's happening in our Companion Diocese of Mityana, Uganda, on February 4, 7:30-9 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia. Bishop Bartlett, the Rev. Mary Adebonojo, and the Rev. Frank Toia will share pictures and stories of their December visit. For background, read the Bishop's column in the February Pennsylvania Episcopalian.

Women Interacting Workshop

A workshop sponsored by Women Interacting scheduled for February 22 (9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., St. Asaph's, Bala Cynwyd), "More About Anger for Women as a Change Agent in Their Lives," incorporates Hahn's book, "Walking Meditation with Anger." The Rev. Joy Mills and Betsy Friend, M.S.S., will be leaders. Info: Jerrie Bartlett, 928-0506.

Lay Eucharistic Minister Training

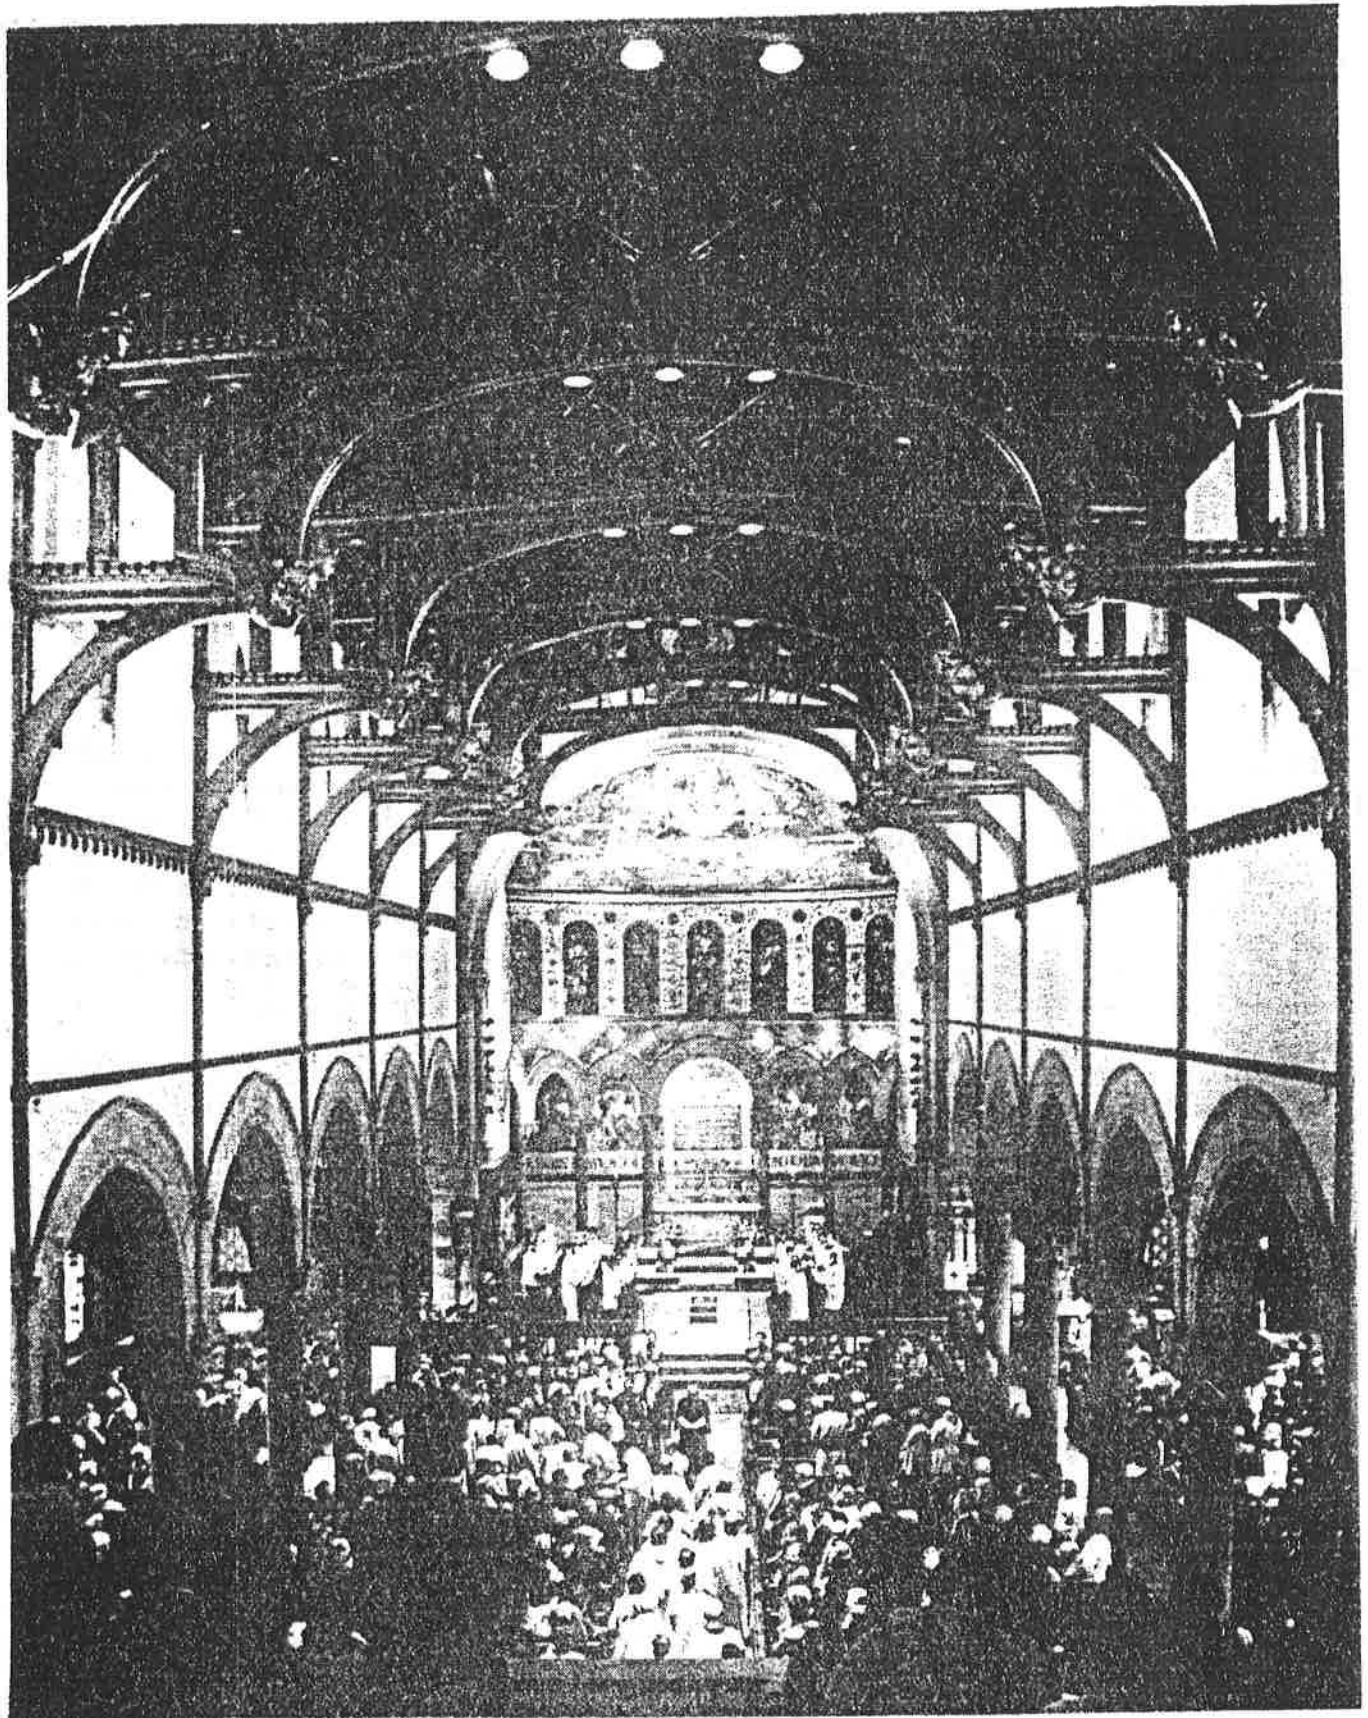

The Spring Lay Eucharistic Ministers' training will be held on Saturday, March 14, at St. Mary's at the Cathedral in Roxborough, 10 a.m. to noon. Please register by calling the Rev. Dorothy Jessup at Good Samaritan, Paoli, 644-4040. Each church is allowed three such ministers, who must be approved by the parish vestry and clergy and licensed by the Bishop.

IMPORTANT TAX REMINDER

It is important that vestries designate a specific portion of clergy compensation as housing allowance so that clergy can properly exclude housing costs from their income subject to Federal Income Tax. For clarification of this point and for information on the special treatment of clergy for Social Security taxes, obtain IRS publication 517 by calling 574-9900.

LOST: Rare Books

Were you at the Hershey Conference in December? Or General Convention in Phoenix last summer? Are you the happy owner of one of those yellow canvas bags commemorating General Convention? If you can answer "yes" to any of these questions, please check the canvas bag to see if it contains Christmas books for children. Each book is marked with the Christian Education Resource Center (CERC) stamp. If you have these books, please return them to CERC, Cathedral Church of the Saviour, 3725 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, PA 19104, or call 387-7748. Thank you!!!

Josie

New diocesan staff members

Recently three persons joined the diocesan staff at Church House.

The Rev. Mildred-Lee Greenwood, Deacon at Holy Trinity, West Chester, is the part-time Coordinator for Ministry in Higher Education. She will work with parishes to facilitate ministry to college students in the Diocese. Greenwood has an education background and currently serves as Assistant Chair of the Physical Education Dept. at West Chester University.

Mrs. Linda Nash Engleby of Bryn Mawr has accepted the position of part-time Staff Person for AIDS Ministry and will work with the diocesan AIDS Committee to develop educational resources and programs on AIDS/HIV. Prior to moving to Pennsylvania, Engleby worked in the Overseas Personnel Department at the Episcopal Church Center in New York City. She also has been a hospital chaplain.

The Rev. Caroline M. Bruschi of Phillipsburg, N.J., is the part-time Director of Clergy Support. Bruschi's most recent position was Associate Rector of Calvary Church in Summit, N.J.; she also has social work experience. She will help clergy and their families experiencing personal problems find appropriate social services or resources.

Bios and photos of Greenwood and Engleby appear in the March issue of The Pennsylvania Episcopalian. Bruschi will be profiled in the April issue.

Parking at Cathedral

Visitors to the Cathedral Church of the Saviour and the Education Center at Gateson House are welcome — but please don't park in the small Cathedral parking lot off 38th Street. The few spaces in that lot are reserved for the Cathedral and Education Center staff. There are three on-street parking lots adjacent to the Cathedral on Market Street, as well as underground parking at the A.M.E. First District Plaza building at 38th & Market Street. And, of course, on-street parking (carry lots of quarters for the meters!).

Clergy Updates

Sympathy is extended to the family of the Rev. Harry L. Mayfield, 68, retired priest, who died on February 19 in Barbados. Mayfield was Rector of St. Mary's, Ardmore, from 1967-1986.

The Very Rev. D. Antonio Martin, Rector of Calvary, Northern Liberties, is the new Dean of Schuylkill Deanery. He replaces the Very Rev. John F. Hardwick, who declined to run for reelection due to his new responsibilities as Dean of the Cathedral Church of the Saviour.

The Rev. Emmett Paige, Rector of St. Mark's, Philadelphia, from 1951-71, celebrated his 60th anniversary to the priesthood on February 1 by concelebrating the 10:00 a.m. Eucharist at St. Mark's.

Happy 80th Birthday to the Rev. Canon Thomas W.S. Logan, Sr., who will celebrate on March 19 at the Senior Clergy luncheon at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour. Logan is Priest-in-Charge at St. Matthias, Philadelphia.

The Rev. Robert H. Betts, Executive Director of Episcopal Community Services, is a delegate to the Citizens' Assembly for a Greater Philadelphia. This nonpartisan group of business and community leaders was formed to raise up concerns and goals for the future of our region.

The Rev. Charles A. Carter, III, Rector of St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, is the new Chair of the Mission Strategy Commission, replacing the Very Rev. David Hockensmith.

The Rev. Isaac Miller, Rector of Church of the Advocate, is a member of the Ad-hoc Strategy Team for Philadelphia Interfaith Action, a newly organized group of city churches and community organizations. Advocate parishioners Martin Trimble and Mary Higgs are also on the Strategy Team.

Prayer Around the Cross

Pray with and for people who are bearing heavy burdens. Come to St. Luke & the Epiphany, 330 So. 13th St., Philadelphia, at 7 p.m. the first Friday of every month. "Prayer Around the Cross" uses prayer, music and meditation in the spirit of the Taizé community of France. Information: 732-1918.

Volunteers Needed at Graterford

There are a variety of volunteer opportunities at Graterford Prison, where St. Dismas' Mission Congregation is located. Training for some of the openings, such as joining in St. Dismas' worship and fellowship or working with inmates' families in the Family Resource Center or outside the prison, is provided by Episcopal Community Services. Other jobs, such as teaching inmates to read and helping those about to be released to strengthen job-hunting and financial management skills, require training by prison authorities. For more information on volunteer ministries at Graterford, contact the Chaplaincy Department at Episcopal Community Services, 351-1423.

Storage Sought

The Diocesan Refugee Committee is enormously thankful to everyone who has responded to our ongoing drive for second-hand furniture for incoming refugee families. To ease collection, we would like to have temporary storage, with pick-up vehicles and persons, in each county. We hope to expand our project to create a Diocesan Storage Center which would serve not only refugees but any needy family in crisis referred by our churches. STORAGE SPACE IS NEEDED! Please call Barbara Irving, Coordinator, at 566-4851, to volunteer or to discuss the project.

Collect for Ash Wednesday, March 4

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent: Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

VISN offers spirit-filled TV

Residents of the Northeast section of Philadelphia are reminded that the Vision Interfaith Satellite Network (VISN) is now available on Comcast Cable in that area (channel 61). The March program schedule for VISN includes these Episcopal offerings:
"A Hunger for Healing," a series on how the Twelve-Step process developed by Alcoholics Anonymous can be a tool for emotional and spiritual healing for all persons (airs Mondays 9:30-10 pm); "Faces on Faith" (co-produced with United Methodist Communications) which features in-depth conversations with noted guests who discuss basic questions of faith (seen Wednesdays at 9:30 pm); and "Writers Reading," aired on Sundays at 6:30 p.m., which includes writers such as Mary Gordon, Madeleine L'Engle, Chaim Potok and Wallace Stegner reading sections from their works dealing with questions of faith, the meaning of life, and the human condition.

VISN is a non-profit consortium of 54
Protestant, Jewish, Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox faith groups. Its diverse programs are now seen in over 11 million households across the nation. VISN is not currently available in the Philadelphia area outside of the Comcast system in the Northeast. Rectors and vicars of churches in that area are urged to remind their congregations it is available, and viewers of VISN are urged to let Comcast know they are watching (feedback is important). Those subscribing to cable systems not carrying VISN are asked to join the many religious groups in our area who are actively lobbying those companies to carry VISN: a letter to your system's program director is a good start. For more information about VISN, contact Barbara Ogilby at Church House (627-6434).

Convention Planning

Diocesan committees are beginning to work on the November 13-14 Diocesan Convention.

Mrs. Margaret Schneider of St. Christopher's, Gladwyne, is the new chair of the Convention Arrangements Committee, which oversees the multitude of logistical details involved with Convention.

Ms. Gail Brunner, Esq., a member of Calvary, Rockdale, will once again chair the Resolutions Committee, which receives resolutions, holds hearings, and writes a final report for clergy and lay deputies. Deadline for receipt of resolutions: September 14, 4:45 p.m., at Church House.

The Rev. Dennis Warner, Rector of Epiphany, Royersford, is heading the Nominations Committee, which will present a slate for the Standing Committee, the Commission on Clergy Salaries & Pensions, the Church Foundation Board, and deputies to the 1994 General Convention. Suggested names may be sent to Fr. Warner at 209 So. Third Ave., Royersford, PA 19468; telephone 948-9655. The Committee will announce its slate in June, following which nominations may be made by petition until October 14.

Certificates A & B, for the listing of lay deputies, will be sent to all parishes shortly. Please return Certificate B promptly, so that your deputies will receive the Convention mailings.

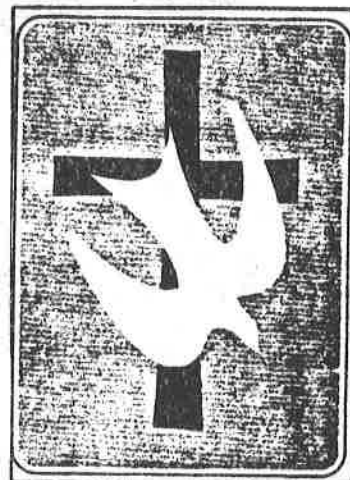

Questions about Convention may be addressed to Barbara Ogilby at Church House, 627-6434.

Peace in the Middle East

St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, is the site of a Convocation on Peace in the Middle East on Sunday, May 3, 1:15 p.m.-evening. The event is sponsored by the Northwest Interfaith Movement. A committee of Muslims, Christians and Jews has planned the program, which will examine the effect of religious traditions on the search for peace in that troubled area, as well as the role of the U.S. in the peace process. The event concludes with an ecumenical service at 8 p.m. Cost before April 15 is $20 (includes dinner); after April 15, $25. Deadline for registration is April 27. For more info, call 843-5600.

ECS Conference looks at life care decisions

The Chaplaincy unit at Episcopal Community Services is holding a conference, "The Advance Directive: Professionals Helping Families Make Quality of Life Decisions," Thursday, May 7, 8:30 a.m.-12 noon, at the College of Physicians, 19 So. 22nd St., Philadelphia. An "advance directive" is the vehicle through which a person informs health care professionals of the treatments and procedures he/she desires should a situation arise in which he/she is unable to make decisions. A panel representing the medical, religious and legal communities will address the issues involved. The conference is open to everyone: fee is $30 or $25 for ECS Associate Chaplains (fee includes continental breakfast). Send checks made out to Episcopal Community Services to Ms. Cynthia Gale, ECS Chaplaincy Services, 225 So. Third St., Philadelphia, PA 19106. Call 351-1423 for more info.

Lutheran/Episcopal Dialogue set

St. Paul's Lutheran Church and St. Peter's Episcopal Church, both in Glenside, will join in a morning of Dialogue and Discovery; Discussion and Fellowship, on Saturday, May 2, 9 a.m.-noon, at St. Peter's. Leaders will be Professor Timothy J. Wengert from Lutheran Theological Seminary and the Rev. Dr. Daniel B. Stevick, Emeritus Professor, Episcopal Divinity School. Call 884-5950 for information.

PTI considers "culture in crisis"

"Being Faithful in a Culture in Crisis" is the theme of the spring conference of the Philadelphia Theological Institute, set for Saturday, May 9, 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia. Under the leadership of the Rev. Dr. Margaret Guenther, Director of General Seminary's Center for Christian Spirituality, participants will reflect, through conversation and silence, on how they, as Christians, can live out their faith in a culture where infidelity and idolatry are often the norm. The conference will draw upon scriptural imagery and resources such as the Benedictine rule to help laity and clergy become more aware of the seductiveness of our society and better equipped to be bearers of the Gospel in that society. Fee for PTI Associates is $12; non-associates $15. Box lunches available upon request. Call 386-4108 or send a check to PTI, 3723 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, PA 19104.

ECS Sunday

Episcopal Community Services (ECS) Sunday is scheduled for May 10 this year. As "Our Church's Own Human Services Agency," ECS ministers to over 5,000 economically deprived clients each year: medically-needy, abused and neglected children; the elderly; the institutionalized; people with AIDS; and the homeless. Order forms for ECS posters, brochures and contribution envelopes were mailed March 23. ECS materials will be sent to parishes the week of April 21. Call Sara Purdom, 351-1462, with questions about materials or ECS speakers.

Need help with church school?

"Just for You" is the title of a May 2 workshop at the Christian Education Resource Center at Gateson House, Cathedral Church of the Saviour, in Philadelphia. The 8:30 a.m.-noon gathering will offer help with organizing a program, finding teachers, budgeting and other concerns. Fee: $5. Call 387-7748 for more information.

Benefit for St. Margaret's House

An April 25 dinner theatre production of "Not By Half," with Roberta Nobleman, will benefit St. Margaret's House in Germantown. The production is about Sr. Francis Clare, a 19th century nun who helped to reform tenant housing problems and to set up schools for children and hospitals in England and the U.S. The benefit performance will take place at St. Mary's at the Cathedral, Roxborough, and begins with a reception at 5 p.m. Cost is $35. Call 844-9410 for info.

Dolphins to hold school, luncheon

The Dolphins of Delaware Valley will hold their annual school for persons interested in their ministry of one-on-one visits with the elderly or disabled in nursing or retirement homes. Sessions will take place at Good Samaritan, on Route 30 in Paoli, at 7:30 p.m. on April 21 and 28 and May 5. Come for one or all of the sessions. Call 649-5594 weekday mornings to get more information on themes/speakers of each session.

The Dolphins annual meeting and luncheon is set for May 13, 12:30 p.m., at St. Mary's, Ardmore. Janice Sapp, Dolphin Administrator, will speak. Cost is $5 and reservations may be made by calling 649-5594 weekday mornings.

Save the Date: Saturday, June 6, the Rev. John Haughey returns to the Diocese for an all-day conference on the spirituality of stewardship. Haughey's retreat last fall led one participant to comment, "I will never consider stewardship in the same old way again!" Site: Cathedral Church of the Saviour. Cost: $20. Details to come in the May editions of The Pennsylvania Episcopalian and "Around the Diocese."

Add these Fall Dates to your Calendar:

September 26: "Mission & Ministry '93," tentative title of the second annual conference for parish clergy and budget decision makers. Cathedral Church of the Saviour, Phila., 8:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Details to come.

October 3: "Teaching Teachers How to Teach," Christian Education workshop with the Rev. Howard Williams, Director of Children's Ministries at the Episcopal Church Center, New York. Cathedral Church of the Saviour, Phila.; schedule to be announced.

Hearings on Diocesan Convention Resolutions: October 20, 7-10 p.m., Cathedral Church of the Saviour, Phila.; October 22, 7-10 p.m., Holy Trinity, West Chester; October 26, 7-10 pm, St. Paul's, Doylestown. Resolutions are due at Church House by Monday, September 14.

Stewardship degree offered

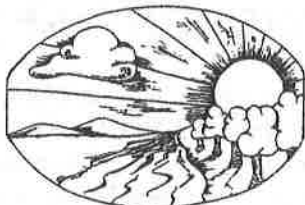

The Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston, Illinois, in cooperation with Seabury-Western Theological Seminary and the Ecumenical Center for Stewardship Studies, is offering a Doctor of Ministry degree in Christian Stewardship. Deadline for applications is September 1. Contact the Ecumenical Center for Stewardship Studies, 1100 West 42nd Street, Indianapolis, IN 46208.

Environmental inserts available

The Center for the Celebration of Creation, based at the Chestnut Hill United Methodist Church, offers monthly bulletin inserts on the spiritual dimension of the environmental movement. For information on how your congregation can subscribe to these inserts and what they contain, call Marianne Fluehr at the Center, 242-9321.

Save the Environment

Spring is here and we can all cut down on pollution. Use public transportation to go to work and whenever possible use that ancient form of transportation — WALK!

Accessibility Tips

The Diocesan Task Force on the Church and the Disabled suggests the following methods of helping the handicapped:

- * Explore ways of including the members of your parish who are handicapped in any way in the education, fellowship and ministry of your congregation. Encourage them to become lay readers and chalice bearers, ask them to make calls on persons who are shut-ins, establish a telephone ministry, use them as volunteers in the office or for special mailings or projects.

- * Share your experiences with other congregations: One never knows when the successes or failures of a project might give another group an idea or get a person involved.

(Suggestions supplied by the Presiding Bishop's Task Force on Accessibility.)

PLEASE USE MAILING ADDRESSES!

Please be sure to double-check Directory listings when sending mail to churches. Several churches use mailing addresses that differ from their street addresses. Also, please let the Communications Office know if your church address changes. Occasionally, mail has been returned to the Diocese when a parish has listed its address as the intersection of two streets, rather than a specific street address with a number.

In addition, please let us know if your church is handicapped-accessible so that we can indicate this in the Directory Changes.

A Reminder . . . see the attached Calendar for more information on these conferences which are of interest to many in the Diocese:

- April 4 Black Ministries Consultation, which is being coordinated by Bishop Franklin Turner & the Rev. Paul Washington
- April 21 Accounting Wardens meeting with Bill Powell
- Please note that the April 4 "Enabling Older Persons to Belong & to Serve" conference has been CANCELLED due to low registration. News of this came after the Diocesan Calendar was printed.

Biblical Institute at Rosemont

The second annual ecumenical Biblical Institute will be held at Rosemont College in Rosemont June 21-26. Scripture scholars from a variety of church backgrounds will present lectures during the week on First Peter; Luke's Gospel; The Psalms; and the Theme of the Bible. The Institute is open to all, but space is limited. Cost for resident students is $400; for commuters $250 (includes meals). For a brochure write Brother Lewis Mullin, FSC, Rosemont College, Rosemont, PA 19010 or telephone 688-7610, ext. 38.

Correction on VISN

The item in the March newsletter about the Vision Interfaith Satellite Network (VISN) coming to Philadelphia said that it was available on Comcast Cable's service in the Northeast part of the city only. Happily, VISN programs can also be seen on Comcast's system covering Northwest Philly (includes Chestnut Hill, Germantown, Oak Lane, Olney, West Mount Airy, and Oxford Circle). Viewers who have not discovered the rich variety of VISN programs, produced by Protestant, Roman Catholic, Orthodox, and Jewish faith groups, are urged to tune in Channel 61. Unlike other religious offerings on TV, VISN does not permit on-air fundraising or disparagement of one faith group by another. VISN aims to build bridges of understanding through dramas for all ages, documentaries, musical offerings, comedy, and discussion programs. . . Give VISN a try!

PLEASE USE MAILING ADDRESSES!

Please be sure to double-check Directory listings when sending mail to churches. Several churches use mailing addresses that differ from their street addresses. Also, please let the Communications Office know if your church address changes. Occasionally, mail has been returned to the Diocese when a parish has listed its address as the intersection of two streets, rather than a specific street address with a number.

In addition, please let us know if your church is handicapped-accessible so that we can indicate this in the Directory Changes.

Billy is coming to Philly

The Greater Philadelphia Billy Graham Crusade is coming to Veterans Stadium, Broad Street & Patison Ave., June 24-28. The free services will be at 7:30 pm Wednesday-Saturday and 4 pm on Sunday. In addition to Dr. Graham, the Crusade will feature celebrities such as Philadelphia Eagle Reggie White; singers Johnny & June Cash; and former Surgeon-General Dr. C. Everett Koop. Attendees are asked to bring personal-size hygiene items (toothpaste, soap, washcloths) that will be packed in kits and distributed to homeless shelters. Complete information on parking, handicapped accessibility, etc., will be sent to all area churches by June 1; or call the Crusade Office, 667-2003.

St. Gabriel's/St. Mary's summer camp for children

For the fourth year, St. Gabriel's on Roosevelt Blvd. and St. Mary's, Bainbridge St., would like to offer approximately 35 young parishioners a summer camp experience in the mountains. The camp is scheduled for August 17-20 at Kirby House in the Diocese of Bethlehem. Topics to be covered: celebrating as a child of God; God's presence in our celebration; and community and celebration.

To fund the camp, financial support is needed outside the parishes and families involved. The cost for each person is $100, which covers room, meals, transportation and supplies. Individuals, outreach committees, parishes and deaneries are asked to sponsor one or more children, or to contribute a partial scholarship. Make checks payable to: St. Gabriel's Church, Summer Camp, 101 E. Roosevelt Blvd., Philadelphia, PA 19120. For more info, call the Rev. Mary Laney at St. Gabriel's, 329-3807, or the Rev. Miriam Acevedo-Naters, 985-0360.

UTO Ingathering

The Rt. Rev. Edward Neufville, Bishop Suffragan of Liberia, will preach at the Ingathering service for the United Thank Offering on Sunday, May 31, 4 p.m., at St. Stephen's, Clifton Heights.

Companion Diocese News . . .

The Rev. Erisa Mutabaazi, Chaplain to Bishop Mutebi in the Diocese of Mityana, Uganda, will be in Pennsylvania from about the first of July until early November. Fr. Mutabaazi will be available for speaking engagements and parish visits: his Sunday mornings during July and August are booked, but fall Sundays and other dates are available. To schedule a July or August date, call Good Shepherd, Hilltown, 822-3930. To schedule a September or October date, call the Rev. John Holt, 527-5229. Please note: The Companion Diocese Committee, which is paying for Fr. Mutabaazi's travel to this country, suggests it would be appropriate to offer him a modest honorarium for speaking engagements to help cover his other expenses.

Bishop Wilson Mutebi himself will be in our Diocese in September and will be available for parish visits from the 11th to the 21st. Call John Randolph, 985-0412, for more information.

Mityana Revisited, a 31-minute video chronicling the trip which Bishop Bartlett, the Rev. Mary Adebonojo, and the Rev. Frank Toia took to Mityana last December, is now available. It includes coverage of the ordination of Mityana's first women priests. The tape can be borrowed from the Audio-Visual Resource Library (call 387-6335) or from any parish which has a companion relationship with a Mityana parish (call the Rev. Otto Lolk, 342-6310, for a list of companion parishes).

Coming in the July Pennsylvania Episcopalian: an inspiring interview with Herberta Smith, a nurse from St. Mary's, Ardmore, who leaves in June for a year's work in Mityana.

Remember in Your Prayers . . .

The Rev. Vivian Smart, instituted as Vicar of St. Mary's & Mission San Pablo, Chester, on May 26, 7 p.m., at St. Mary's.

Convention News

Diocesan Council has approved the suggestion of the Convention Arrangements Committee that a social event be held during the November 13-14 Diocesan Convention. The Committee is now planning for a reception at the First District Plaza, 38th & Market Streets, at 6 p.m. on Friday the 13th (who's superstitious?!). This event will be open to everyone in the Diocese; tickets will be $10/person. Information will be sent in the June Convention mailing to clergy and lay deputies, as well as in a separate mailing to all parishes.

Present plans call for Convention to begin at 1 p.m. on Friday, November 13, with the Holy Eucharist, featuring a guest preacher: name to be announced shortly.

Lunches: Any parish interested in providing Convention-goers an inexpensive sandwich lunch on Friday, November 13, is asked to call Barbara Ogilby's office (627-6434). Profit from the lunches would be kept by the parish. Lunches are offered on Friday for Convention workers and any clergy and lay deputies who wish to eat at the Cathedral before Convention begins: last year about ninety were sold.

Positions Available

St. Mary's, Ardmore, is looking for a part-time coordinator for a blossoming church school of sixty children and growing. This one-year contract is in the $15/hour range. Duties include training of teachers, curriculum development, and overall coordination, under supervision of the Rector and the Chair of an active and very supportive parent-teacher organization. Call 649-1486.

Shepherd's Place, an Upper Darby-based ecumenical ministry offering shelter and counseling to homeless clients, seeks a full-time Administrative Director. Resumes should be sent to PO Box 2816, Upper Darby, PA 19082.

Organ Concerts at St. Mark's

St. Mark's, 1625 Locust Street, Philadelphia, offers organ concerts from 12:10-12:40 p.m. on Tuesdays in June. A free-will offering benefits area charities.

Icon Workshop

An intensive seven-day workshop on Byzantine icon painting will be taught July 11 through 17 in the Undercroft at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour. Renowned Russian icon painter Vladislav Andrejev will be the instructor. Previous artistic experience is not necessary. Classes run from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. (except Sunday, 1-7 p.m.). The cost of the workshop is $450 per person, plus $62 for art supplies. A minimum of 10 participants will be necessary to hold the workshop, and enrollment is limited to 20. Registrations are due by June 10 and must be accompanied by a nonrefundable deposit of $100. For registration forms and a list of area hotels, call Lois Sibley, 387-7748. For more information about the workshop, contact Bettina Clowney, 457-4430.

Today's second lesson tells us of one of the glories of the Christian community: that we all have different gifts to offer for the common good. More than 500 volunteers for Episcopal Community Services apply their unique talents to a variety of ministries, including: preparing frozen meals for elderly clients and persons with AIDS; visiting people in hospitals, nursing homes and prisons as lay chaplains; and teaching young children in a playroom project for inmates and their families at Graterford Prison.

Council Update:

'93 Budget OK'd

At its June 18 meeting at St. Peter's in the Great Valley, Diocesan Council approved the proposed 1993 diocesan budget presented by the Program Budget Committee. The $3+ million budget now goes to the November 13-14 Diocesan Convention for final approval.

New items in the '93 program budget include support of a new mission in the Salford area of Montgomery County; the addition of a half-time youth assistant under Christian Education; and adjustments in the social ministry area that will link diocesan social ministry with the work of Episcopal Community Services.

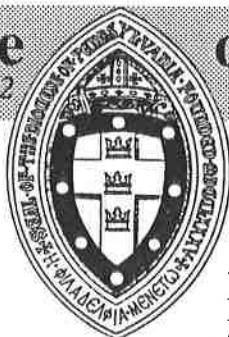

The proposed budget will be mailed to clergy and lay deputies, parish wardens, deanery delegates and other lay leaders in August, along with an invitation to a September 26 conference, "Our Common Task: Mission & Ministry '93," at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour. The conference will highlight new thrusts in diocesan program and give participants opportunity for feedback and questions.

New asking guidelines

Finance & Property Committee announced new guidelines for the combined program asking and episcopate assessment that parishes remit to the Diocese. The new guidelines will be included in the 1993 budget document and also published with the budget in the September Pennsylvania Episcopalian.

Historic St. Thomas' closer to move

Bishop Allen Bartlett, responding to a favorable report from a Council Committee that investigated the matter, announced at the meeting that he will grant permission for Historic St. Thomas', now in West Philadelphia, to move to the site formerly occupied by the Memorial Church of St. Paul in the Overbrook section of Philadelphia. St. Thomas' must also receive permission from the Standing Committee to sell its present property at 52nd & Parrish Streets.

Deacons ordained at Cathedral

Six persons were ordained to the transitional diaconate by Bishop Bartlett at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour on June 13. In his sermon, the Rev. Wendel Meyer, Rector of St. Peter's, Philadelphia, and Chair of the Commission on Ministry, urged the ordinands to "make your calling incarnate through your flesh, words and actions for this day and every day for the rest of your lives."

Three ordinands will leave the Diocese: Beatrice Billups to a parish in Maryland; John Denson to Holy Comforter, Evanston, Ill., and Debra Kissinger to a church in Irvington, NY. Remaining in this Diocese are Mary Jo Melberger, who will serve at Holy Trinity, Rittenhouse Square; John Alexander, going to St. Mary's, Wayne; and Marie Swayze, who will continue at St. James', Downingtown, where she did her field work.

Shakespeare at St. Stephen's

St. Stephens', 10th Street between Market & Chestnut, Phila., will feature the Shenandoah Shakespeare Express, a Virginia-based troupe, in July.

The Merchant of Venice will be performed at 8 p.m. on July 21, 24, 28 & 31.

Macbeth can be seen at 8 p.m. on July 22, 25, 29 & August 1.

Performances of The Comedy of Errors will be at 8 p.m. on July 23 & 30, with 2 p.m. matinees on July 25 & August 1.

Tickets: $15, $10 with student or senior citizen I.D.; they can be purchased at the door 30 minutes before each performance; for reservations, call 922-3807.

ECS Today's second lesson tells us of one of the glories of the Christian community: that we all have different gifts to offer for the common good. More than 500 volunteers for Episcopal Community Services apply their unique talents to a variety of ministries, including: preparing frozen meals for elderly clients and persons with AIDS; visiting people in hospitals, nursing homes and prisons as lay chaplains; and teaching young children in a playroom project for inmates and their families at Graterford Prison.

Godspeed, + Allen!

Bishop Bartlett leaves for "stage 1" of his sabbatical on September 25. He will be in residence at Westcott House, a theological college attached to the University of Cambridge, England, until November 25. ("Stage 2," February-April 1993, will include a visit to St. George's College, Jerusalem.)

During his absence this fall, two bishops will be coming to the Diocese to assist Bishop Suffragan Turner with parish Visitations. The Rt. Rev. Gerard Mpango, Bishop of Western Tanganyika, Tanzania, will be here mid-September through October; and the Rt. Rev. William Sanders, Retired Bishop of Tennessee, will be in the Diocese in November.

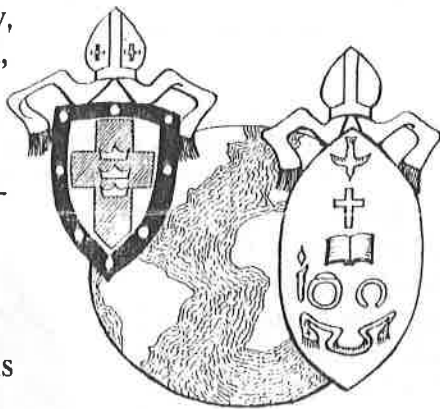

Parishes hosting visiting bishops (including Bishop Wilson Mutebi — see next item) are reminded that they are responsible for transporting the bishops to and from the Visitation.

Visitors from Mityana

The Rt. Rev. Wilson Mutebi, Bishop of our Companion Diocese of Mityana, Uganda, will be in the Diocese September 3-21. Bishop Mutebi joins his chaplain, the Rev. Erisa Mutabaazi, who has been here since July. Both men will be visiting several parishes during their stays.

A Diocesan Celebration of our Companion Relationship with Mityana will take place at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, 38th & Chestnut Sts., Phila., on September 11. The Eucharist will be celebrated at 5:30 p.m., followed by a 6:30 p.m. informal dinner and time of sharing with Bishop Mutebi. Attendees are asked to bring cold "finger foods" to share.

Sept. 26 Conference to look at "Mission & Ministry '93"

Clergy, Convention deputies, parish wardens, deanery delegates and other interested Episcopalians are invited to attend "Our Common Task: Mission & Ministry '93," a conference on the 1993 program and budget taking place at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, Phila., on Saturday, September 26, 8:30 a.m.-1 p.m.

Personal invitations will be mailed to potential attendees in late August. Call the Communications Office, 627-6434, for more information.

Wiggins to be honored

Mrs. Mamie E. Wiggins, retiring Director of the St. Barnabas Mission for the Homeless, will be honored at a 4 p.m. service on Sunday, November 13, at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, 38th & Chestnut Streets, Phila. The Rt. Rev. Paul Moore, retired Bishop of New York, will preach, and the Very Rev. R. Neal Hubbard, founder of the Mission, will be principal Celebrant.

Clergy Retirements

Best wishes to three Rectors retiring at the end of September: the Rev. John F. Leser of Calvary, Germantown; the Rev. William E. Mills, Jr., Incarnation, Morrisville; and the Rev. Dr. Herbert E. Rowe, St. Anne's, Abington.

Diaconal Ordinations

Two recent graduates from the diocesan School of the Diaconate will be ordained this fall: Elizabeth Colton on September 19, 2 pm, at St. Mary's, Hamilton Village, by Bishop Wilson Mutebi; and Judith Ray on October 17, 2 p.m., at St. Gabriel's, Bishop Gerard Mpango, officiant. Congratulations!

Sponsored by the Diocesan Christian Education Committee, the day will feature a keynote presentation by Williams on children's ministries and their place in worship, as well as workshops on working with children in the parish setting. Call 387-7748 for info.

Fall Kick-Off for Diocesan Youth is set for Saturday, September 19, 11 a.m.-4 p.m., on the grounds of the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge Park. All parish youth and leaders are invited to take part in a service in the Chapel, picnic, singing and games. Info: 387-7748.

"The Power of the Atom: Claiming the Power of the Small Church," is the title of a conference sponsored by the Spiritual Growth Committee on October 17, 10 a.m.-3 p.m., at Cathedral Church of the Saviour, Philadelphia. Those planning the day welcome input from clergy/lay leaders on these questions: what is your parish story (events, people, ministries)? who does your church minister to (or who are you not reaching)? what changes are happening in the neighborhood? where is the cutting edge — what is exciting right now? what is your vision five years hence — next year? what is your understanding of corporate spirituality, and how has worship and prayer enabled you to follow your vision? Please send comments to the Revs. Marjorie Farmer, John Scott and Peter Stube, at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, 3723 Chestnut St., Phila., PA 19104.

Clergy Support Groups Offered

The Samaritan Counseling Center, an interfaith counseling service, will offer ecumenical clergy support groups in three locations this fall. Groups are weekly, from one and one-half to two hours, and focus on consultation and support regarding parish and personal issues. They are led by skilled facilitators. Fees are modest and can be covered partially or in full by parish continuing education monies.

Support groups can be an effective way for clergy to deal with stress and improve their skills in pastoral ministry. A number of our clergy participate in such groups at present and recommend them highly.

For information regarding the Samaritan Center's support group program, clergy may call the Rev. Ken Haring at 357-7777, or the Rev. Caroline M. Bruschi, Director of Clergy Support, at 699-3778.

Continuing Ed

Director of Clergy Support Bruschi also reports she is collecting information on workshops and conferences on a variety of topics open to both clergy and laity. For more info, call her office at Messiah, Gwynedd, 699-3778.

Orr is new GFS Head

Dorothy Orr, a member of Trinity, Oxford, and President of the diocesan Girls' Friendly Society, was elected National President at the 54th National Assembly of GFS/USA, held in the Diocese of Chicago in June. Maureen Powers of Emmanuel, Holmesburg, was elected National Junior Delegate to the GFS World Council meeting in New Zealand in May 1993.

PTI plans fall conference, lecture series

"Postmodern Concepts: A Sign of Hope or a Sign of Hopelessness" is the title of the Philadelphia Theological Institute's October 23 conference at St. Mary's, Cathedral Road. The program runs from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. and features the Rev. Dr. Frederick Burnham, Director of Trinity Institute, New York City, and Mr. Roger Boltz, Associate Director of Episcopalians United, Solon, Ohio. Call 386-4108 for reservations or information.

PTI also offers a series of lectures on Anglican authors (John Donne, George Herbert, Thomas Traherne, William Law, and John and Charles Wesley) by the Rev. Dr. Daniel B. Stevick, Professor Emeritus of Liturgics and Homiletics at Episcopal Divinity School. The lectures will be offered in several parishes around the Diocese next fall and winter: call 386-4108 for a schedule.

The sermons will be published in a fall Forward Movement Publication called "Sermons That Work, III."

Chair lift needed

Trinity Church, Collingdale, is seeking a chair lift that is in good condition for two sets of stairs ascending from the entry area to the worship space. The church would install the lift. Trinity's finances are very limited, and a memorial donation would be greatly appreciated. Please call the church office, 461-2054, if you can help.

Singles conference in Kanuga

Single Episcopalians from post-college to post-retirement age will gather for their third national conference at the Kanuga Conference Center in Hendersonville, N.C., September 3-6. Theme of the conference is "Flying Solo: Companions On the Way," and the keynote speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Elizabeth Canham, a single priest, author and spiritual director who serves on the staff of the Diocese of Western No. Carolina.

The aim of these gatherings is not only to provide opportunities for sharing, networking, and fellowship among single adults but to help those working on diocesan or parish ministries with singles learn more about the issues faced by never-married, divorced or widowed adults. 48% of the U.S. population over the age of 25 is single: that figure is expected to be 52% by the year 2000.

Cost of the conference is $375. To receive a brochure, write to Solo Flight, Box 610, Lexington, KY 40586. For more info, contact Dr. Kay Collier-Slone, 606/252-6527.

Acolytes from around the country are invited to the Washington National Cathedral on Saturday, October 16, 10:30 a.m.-4 p.m., for the 14th Annual Acolyte Festival. The day begins with Eucharist, followed by a box lunch and tours, workshops and exhibits. Fee is $10 per person (includes lunch); checks should be made payable to the Diocese of Washington. For more information or to register, contact the Rev. Claudia Gould, 1612 No. Fillmore St., Arlington, VA 22201.

P.O. Box 334 215-644-2261

Paoli, Pennsylvania 19301

The Rev. Frank M. Harron, Rector

SARUM SINGERS

Martha Johnson, Musical Director

For immediate release:

The visionary English composer Herbert Howells was born 100 years ago this Fall. To celebrate his important contributions to church music, St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley and the Philadelphia Chapter of the American Guild of Organists will co-sponsor a festal Evensong featuring some of his important choral and organ works.

The Centennial service will be held twice, on Sunday, October 18 at St. Peter's in the Great Valley (Paoli) and on Sunday, November 22 at St. Mark's, Locust Street (Philadelphia), both at 5 pm. The composer's Requiem (1936) and several of his best known anthems will be sung by a Festival Choir directed by Martha Johnson (organistchoirmaster of St. Peter's) and accompanied by organist Wesley Parrott, following choral Evensong which will feature the evening canticles Collegium Regale written by Howells for King's College, Cambridge.

Additional organ works by the composer will be played at St. Mark's on the large E.M. Skinner organ by members of the organists' Guild. The American Guild of Organists was formed to serve and educate church musicians almost one hundred years ago; the Philadelphia chapter was the first local chapter, organized in 1902.

For Calendar listing:

Sunday, October 18, 1992, 5:00 pm (St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley, Paoli) and Sunday November 22, 1992, 5:00 pm (St. Mark's, Locust St. Philadelphia): Festal Choral Evensong in honor of the 100th Birthday of Herbert Howells (1892-1983). Requiem (1938), short anthems, hymns and major organ works by Howells. Martha N. Johnson, director. Wesley Parrott, Organist.

Bicentennial Celebration Kicks Off October 31

"The Bicentennial Celebration of 200 Years of Black Presence in the Episcopal Church" begins on October 31 with a motorcade that will visit the former, present, and future sites of Historic St. Thomas', the first black Episcopal Church. Other events in the first week of November include the hanging of a portrait of Absalom Jones, the first black Episcopal priest, in the Capitol building in Harrisburg; a symbolic reinterment of the remains of Jones and a play on his life; a conference on challenges facing black Episcopalians in the '90's; and a service of thanksgiving with the Rt. Rev. Barbara Harris, guest preacher. See the Diocesan Calendar attached for specifics or call St. Thomas', 473-3065.

AIDS Service October 4

The annual "Diocesan Service of Healing & Holy Communion for People Living with HIV/AIDS & Those Who Minister to Them" will be Sunday, Oct 4, 4 p.m., at St. Luke & the Epiphany, 330 So. 13th St., Philadelphia. Bishop Franklin Turner will preside, and Jesse Milan, Esq., President of the Board of ActionAIDS, and an active member of the Diocese, will speak.

Welcome New Clergy!

October 16 is orientation day for clergy new to the Diocese, who have been invited to tour the Cathedral, Church House and Episcopal Community Services. Invitations were sent to all those eligible: those who haven't RSVP'd are asked to call either the Rev. Patricia Oglesby (351-1453) or the Rev. Robert Carlson (627-6434) who are planning the gathering.

Children's Sabbath October 18

All congregations have received a letter from Presiding Bishop Browning asking that Sunday, October 18, be designated a time of prayer and advocacy for legislation currently in the Congress that would expand funding for programs benefiting poor children in this country ("every fifth child"). The Rev. Robert S. Betts, Executive Director of Episcopal Community Services, writes: "ECS serves the very children mentioned in the Presiding Bishop's recent letter entitled 'Every Fifth Child.' His letter urges each Episcopalian to write his/her congressperson and senator to urge the passing of the Every Fifth Child Initiative, which has bi-partisan support. This Initiative would assist children generally, and especially children in poverty: in Philadelphia, it is one of every two children. This would be the first new initiative in more than a decade in the area of child welfare. Please support this 'Every Fifth Child Initiative.'"

DOCC Training Set

A training session for persons interested in facilitating the DOCC (Disciples of Christ in Community) program in their congregations will be held Nov 18-21 at St. David's, Radnor. DOCC is an adult Christian education program lasting about 22 weeks that seeks to build Christian community by helping participants learn the basics of the faith, deepen their spiritual lives, and discover and practice their own skills for ministry. It is sponsored by the School of Theology at the University of the South, which also offers the Education for Ministry (EFM) program of theological education for laity. Call the Rev. Lewis Mills (688-7947) or Toni Campbell (363-2363) for more information.

A Stewardship Revival is planned for October and November at St. Luke's, Germantown. The Rev. Paul Abernathy of Trinity Episcopal Church, Washington, D.C., will speak on Oct 15, 7 p.m., and Oct 18 (St. Luke's Day) at 10 a.m.; Dr. Thomas Snowden of Philadelphia will speak on Nov 5 at 7 p.m.; and the Rev. Samuel D. Proctor, Pastor Emeritus, Abyssinian Baptist Church, New York City, will be featured at the 10 a.m. service on Nov 15. Outstanding choirs will perform at all sessions. For information call St. Luke's, 844-8544.

St. Clement's, Philadelphia, is hosting a "School of Prayer" October 18-25, led by Fr. Augustine Hoey of the Community of the Resurrection, Yorkshire, England. All are invited: call 563-1876 for a schedule of classes and services.

"A Faith Sharing Weekend" will be held October 23-25 at Church of the Redemption, Southampton, featuring evangelist Lee A. Buck and the parish rector, the Rev. Robert F. Haskell. Fee: $30 single; $45 couple; children under 19 free (children's programs offered). Call 357-0303 for a complete schedule.

Two churches celebrate anniversaries

The Memorial Church of the Holy Nativity in Rockledge will celebrate its 100th anniversary on All Saints' Day, November 1. Friends are invited to join the parish at the 8:30 or 10:00 Eucharist that morning. The Rev. Philip Houghton, Rector, will preach. Another event celebrating the anniversary will be a Festival of Lessons and Carols on the First Sunday of Advent, November 29, at 4 p.m., featuring the Montgomery Deanery Chorus, and followed by a reception.

St. James' Church, Downingtown, will mark its 150th anniversary on November 22 with a special service at 10:15 a.m. The service will be similar to the first service St. James' held in November 1842 which was conducted in the home of a parishioner by the Rector of Holy Trinity, West Chester. The Rev. William J. Fischler, Holy Trinity's current Rector, will conduct the service on the 22nd using the Book of Common Prayer of 1789 (the book used in 1842). The service will take place in the parish hall.

St. George's to help with day care

The West Philadelphia Child Care Network, a project of the Metropolitan Christian Council, is moving its office to the parish house of St. George's, West End, at 620 So. 61st St. The Network will help St. George's set up a child care center for homeless and other needy children in the area, including youngsters living at the St. Barnabas Mission located at St. Barnabas', Haddington, the congregation with which St. George's is yoked under Vicar Angus Davis. The Network will help other churches establish day care centers: call 877-5475.

Convention Actions

The 209th Diocesan Convention met on November 13-14 at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour with the Rt. Rev. Franklin D. Turner presiding.

Listed below are actions on all except courtesy resolutions.

R-BUD-93: adopted the 1993 program budget of $2,545,431 and a revised formula for figuring the amount asked from each congregation to support the diocesan program and episcopate assessment.

R-A: Clergy Financial Assistance Assessment: adopted.

R-B: Parish Compensation Guidelines for 1993: adopted.

R-6 Proposed Changes to Diocesan Canons:

adopted with an amendment to the section dealing with the lay pension plan requiring that each congregation adopt such a plan, reporting its progress to the Commission on Clergy Salaries & Pensions by May 1, 1993; and that the Commission bring appropriate amendments to the diocesan canons to the 1993 Diocesan Convention.

R-7 Merger of Holy Innocents & St. Paul's, Aramingo: endorsed with applause.

R-8 Episcopal Lutheran Relations: adopted; the resolution urges all congregations to establish closer ties with Lutheran churches.

R-9 Compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act: adopted; resolution urges compliance with the Act by all congregations and diocesan facilities.

R-10 Haiti: adopted this resolution calling on support for the re-institution of the democratically-elected government of Haiti and a review of the U.S. policy of repatriation of Haitian refugees.

R-11 Support for Implementation of El Salvador's Peace Accords: adopted; resolution calls on the U.S. government to actively support the peace accords and eliminate military aid not designated for demobilization.

R-12 Violence: adopted; resolution calls on the Diocese to address "the pervasive evil of violence in our society, as manifested in our greater Delaware Valley."

R-13 On a Prayer for the Decade of Evangelism: adopted with minor amendments.

R-14 Response to R-14a from the 208th Diocesan Convention Concerning Quota: adopted amended version presented by the mover (Finance & Property Committee) which sends this resolution back to the movers of R-14a-91 (Southwark Deanery clergy). R-14a-91 sought a change in the way the National Church determines the apportionment charged each diocese for support of the National Church program. The resolution adopted at this Convention asks the original movers to clarify the effect of proposed changes nationally and in the Diocese and to research whether the changes would place an unfair burden on some dioceses.

R-15 Middle East: adopted with an amendment. The resolution asks congregations in the Diocese to enter into dialogue with Christians in the Holy Land; the amendment would establish a Middle East Study Group to make recommendations on this and report back to the next Convention.

R-16 Decade of Evangelism: resolution called on the Diocese to "commit itself to the active proclamation of Jesus Christ as God's only provision for salvation." Convention voted to refer it to the Theological Commission, if Bishop Bartlett approves.

ATTENTION: Please note that the dates for three PRIDE meetings have changed and are listed incorrectly on the enclosed Diocesan Calendar. The January 26 date has been moved to the 27th; February 23 has been changed to the 24th; and the March 23 meeting has been changed to March 24.

R-17 Central Focus for Studies of Sexuality: adopted amended version presented by mover; resolution calls on groups taking part in the Episcopal Church's sexuality study to study those passages of Holy Scripture which "appear to address directly the subject."

R-18 Language Used in Described God: withdrawn by the mover.

R-19 Non-Discrimination (against those opposed to the ordination of women): resolution defeated.

R-20 Refraining from Ordaining Homosexual Persons (until General Convention approves such action): Convention voted to ask Bishop Bartlett to refer this resolution to the Standing Committee and Commission on Ministry.

When Convention adjourned at 1:30 p.m. on the 14th, three resolutions had not been heard: R-21 On Use of Diocesan Funds (for improper purposes); R-22 Victims of Aids; and R-24 Sending Congratulations to the Church of England for the Vote on Women's Ordination to the Priesthood (R-23, Appeal for Episcopal Direction, had been withdrawn earlier by the mover). At press time, R-24 was scheduled to be heard at the November 21 meeting of Diocesan Council (the movers of R-21 and R-22 withdrew those resolutions from consideration by Council). ■

ECS Sunday is January 24, 1993: As the human services agency of the Diocese, Episcopal Community Services ministers in your name to over 5,000 economically deprived clients each year, including medically needed, abused and neglected children; the elderly; the institutionalized; persons with AIDS; families struggling with poverty, housing problems and substance abuse; and the homeless. Speakers are available. Call Sara Purdom, 351-1462, or Martha McDonald, 351-1466, for more information.

SAVE THE DATE of March 6, 9-11:45 a.m., for a gathering of those who have taken part in diocesan retreats on spirituality and stewardship led by the Rev. John Haughey. This follow-up "conversation" at St. Asaph's, Bala Cynwyd, will allow participants to share personal and parish reactions to Fr. Haughey's presentations and to explore next steps in the Diocese. Please call the Christian Education Resource Center (387-7748) if you plan to attend.

What does it mean to be an evangelist or a steward? How can these ministries be strengthened in our congregations? The annual Conference on Evangelism and Stewardship, set for January 30, 1993, 9 a.m.-1 p.m. at St. Mary's, Roxborough, will offer workshops for clergy, lay leaders and all those eager to explore these ministries for both personal and parish renewal. Registration info will be sent to congregations in December.

A Black Ministries Consultation is set for January 9, 1993, 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the Cathedral Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia. Keynote speaker will be the Rev. Canon Edward W. Rodman, Canon Missioner in the Diocese of Massachusetts. Registration fee of $5/person includes lunch. Send checks made payable to the Diocese of Pennsylvania - Black Ministries Consultation, to the attention of the Rev. Paul L. Minor, St. Luke's Church, 5491 Germantown Ave., Philadelphia, PA 19144-2293. Call Minor at 844-8544 for info.

"Flowers in January" is the title of a lecture/demonstration to be held at the Church of the Redeemer, New Gulph & Pennswood Roads., Bryn Mawr, on January 14, 1993, 9:30 a.m.-12 noon. Instructors will be two members of the Altar Guild at the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. Cost is $20, and checks should be sent to Mrs. Louis Hood, 1169 Radnor Rd., Wayne, PA 19087, or call her at 964-8609 to make reservations. Seating is limited. The event benefits the National Cathedral and Redeemer's Outreach Program.

St. Mary's, Hamilton Village to show award-winning director's film on social justice activist

The Philadelphia premiere of "Cousin Bobby," an acclaimed documentary on the Rev. Robert W. Castle, Priest-in-Charge of St. Mary's Church in Upper East Side Harlem, will be shown Saturday, January 23, 1993, 7:30 p.m., at St. Mary's, Hamilton Village.

Directed by Academy Award-winner Jonathan Demme ("The Silence of the Lambs"), the film focuses on Demme's cousin, Fr. Robert Castle, a long-time activist for social justice. Both Demme and Fr. Castle will be present for an hour-long discussion following the film. Demme is currently in Philadelphia directing a film concerning AIDS.

Tickets for "Cousin Bobby" are $25. Proceeds will benefit St. Mary's, Hamilton Village's respite center for families affected by AIDS. For more information, contact Linda Engleby at Church House, 627-6434.

Extra Prayer Calendars Available

The Calendar of Intercessions for Advent 1992 to Pentecost 1993 was mailed recently from Church House to all clergy. Extra copies are available from the Communications Office, 627-6434.

Professional Education Programs for Clergy

A number of institutions in the Philadelphia area have professional education programs, "clergy breakfasts" or similar programs for clergy dealing with pastoral issues. Below is a sampling. Clergy can contact the institutions directly to be placed on mailing lists. If you are aware of similar programs, please contact the Rev. Caroline M. Bruschi, Director of Clergy Support (699-3778) so that information can be shared.

The following item can be inserted into parish newsletters or bulletins.

"Teach me good judgement and knowledge..."

(Psalm 119:66)

In the past year, 80 young mothers improved reading, math and writing skills with the support and guidance of an Episcopal Community Services social worker at the Germantown Women's Education Project. For many of these women it was the first time they read a book, wrote a letter to a landlord or could help a child with school work.

If you find this item useful, please let ECS know. Send a copy of your bulletin to ECS c/o Martha McDonald, 225 S. Third St., Phila., PA 19106.
